vs.)
)	ORDER
JOSEPH JEWELL,)
)
Defendant.)

This matter is before the court on defendant's motion to continue trial (#29), now set for October 4, 2005. Upon the representation that defendant will file a waiver of speedy trial as required by NECrimR 12.1, and for good cause shown, I find that the motion should be granted.

IT IS ORDERED that defendant's motion (#29) is granted, as follows:

1. Trial of this matter is continued to Tuesday, November 8, 2005.
2. The ends of justice will be served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between October 4, 2005 and November 8, 2005, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reasons stated in defendant's motion . The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) & (B).
3. Counsel for the United States shall confer with defense counsel and electronically file a status report no later than October 27, 2005 advising the court of the anticipated length of trial.

DATED September 22, 2005.

BY THE COURT:
